February 2007

Vice Chairman of GAMHOF, Dr. Horst Saalbach, was awarded the Bundesverdienstkreuz (Order of Merit) from the Federal Republic of Germany

Beginning of February, 2007, the Vice Chairman of GAMHOF, Dr. Horst Saalbach, was awarded the Bundesverdienstkreuz (Order of Merit) from the Federal Republic of Germany. Dr. Hans-Juergen Heimsoeth, Counsel General of Germany, made the presentation in the name of the German President, Horst Koehler, at his residence on Park Avenue in New York City.

Dr. Saalbach was honored for his tireless efforts to bring young business leaders from Germany to the U.S. and vice versa. This brings the number to three of GAMHOF's Board Members, Hetzler, Stupp & Saalbach, to receive this high honor.
