BUSCH FAMILY WELCOMES “GERMAN-AMERICAN HALL of FAME INDUCTION” OF FAMOUS FORBEAR AS GAMHOF LEADERS VISIT ST. LOUIS

The founder and Chairman of the German-American Hall of Fame (GAMHOF), the Honorable William Hetzler and GAMHOF Executive Director and Vice Chairman Ralf G. Bahr visited St. Louis to congratulate the descendants of Adolphus Busch, one of the first ten inductees into the Hall of Fame earlier this year.

Steven Busch and August Busch III said that: “The Busch family is excited and honored” to have their illustrious German immigrant forbear elected and inducted in to the German-American Hall of Fame. Adolphus Busch was the entrepreneurial spirit and founder of the world-renowned Anheuser-Busch Brewery.

For background on the German-American Hall of Fame, the first ten inductees, mission, trustees, and other information, please see www.gamhof.org
